

EYEPARTNER APPROVED AS IPHONE DEVELOPER BY APPLE

Marathon, Florida – June 22nd, 2009

Eyepartner Inc. is now approved as an iPhone Certified developer. As of July 21st, the ongoing developments for the iPhone platform will start being offered to customers. This new development allows for the certified release of Eyepartner's mobile IPTV services. This ability will extend the Flagship TikiLIVE Platform to the ubiquitous iPhone.

The iPhone application extensions give the already powerful IPTV platform the flexibility to reach the third screen of the convergence triple play. Releasing in the next few weeks the iPhone tools will allow for:

- Progressive Streaming to iPhone
- Live broadcasting to the iPhone
- TRUE HD delivery to the iPhone
- Video On Demand to the iPhone
- Pay Per View Platform Extension to the iPhone
- Social Media Interaction to and from the iPhone
- iTunes RSS Integration

With impressive advancements in HD IPTV delivery to the desktop, to set top boxes and now delivery to the Apple iPhone platform, Eyepartner has mastered the elusive convergence of content.
